MAYER MOXIE 2 Health Initiative

The City of Mayer and the Mayer Park Board are excited to offer you two new unique program challenges for 2013.

Building Your Way to Wellness/Weight Loss Challenge from January 24-March 21. This program is an eight-week, physical activity program that will help you become more active. Participate as an individual or a team. Track your minutes of daily physical activity while receiving tips about hydration, cross-training, stretching and more! Compete against others each week to reach your goal and instill healthy habits that can last a lifetime. Challenge yourself to win in the weight loss challenge with the highest percentage of weight lost as an individual or team to win cash rewards.

Train for the Trail from April 4- May 23. This program is designed to help you build strength and endurance for the great outdoors! You will have the chance to track your minutes of daily physical activity and strength training each week. Try new exercises and cross training ideas to prepare you to cover more outdoor ground, negotiate a variety of terrain and carry equipment or gear with ease.

Sign-up for one program or both registration is on the City of Mayer's web page. A discount will be given for those who sign up for both programs.

Mayer Moves for Moxie 2013 will conclude with an optional 5K walk/run.

Sewer and Water Rates to Increase

The City Council voted to increase sewer and water rates. The increase is $2.00 on the base of water and sewer and $.20 per 1,000 on all usage. A utility bill with the usage of 5,000 gallons per month would see an increase of $6.00 per month.

Bloodmobile

The Bloodmobile is coming to the Mayer Community Center on Wednesday,

January 9, 2013 1:00– 7:00 PM

Call Lois at 952-657-2161 to schedule an appointment

American Red Cross

Snow, Sidewalks and Hydrants

The City wants to remind homeowners that it is your responsibility to keep sidewalks and trails in front of your homes clear of snow.

Also, the City requests that fire hydrants be kept clear of snow. If you have a hydrant in your yard, the City would appreciate your assistance in keeping it shoveled out.

PLEASE HAVE YOUR TREE AT
THE CURB THE NIGHT BEFORE.
