City of Mayer

Mayer is a small urban community in western Carver County, and home to about 1,900 residents. The City offers small town living with many amenities.

The Dakota Regional Trail passes through the City and covers a portion of the 44-mile Dakota Rail corridor, which crosses Hennepin, Carver, and McLeod counties. The paved trail provides easy walking, hiking, biking, jogging, and inline skating access for many families in Mayer and citizens of all ages. The trail passes through a variety of scenic areas, including wetlands, wooded areas, and agricultural lands.

The City sponsors several community events including a 5k in June, The Mayor Rising Community Festival the second Saturday in July, bi-weekly Antique Car shows, and Community Education events throughout the year. www.wmcommunityed.com

The City of Mayer also has several parks and trails that traverse throughout the community. The City has over 40 acres of developed parks.

Old Schoolhouse Park is located adjacent to City Hall at 413 Bluejay Ave. West Ridge Park is located in the middle of the City to the east of Highway 25, near downtown. Bluejay Park is a neighborhood park located adjacent to the City's Water Treatment Plant. Meadow Park is a neighborhood park located in the Hidden Creek Subdivision. Discovery Park is located in the Fieldstone subdivision.

The Park Board is working toward making West Ridge Park a premier park for persons with differing abilities. The City was awarded a grant from the Christopher Reeves Foundation to begin the process. They will continue to add pieces and amenities.

MAYER COMMUNITY CENTER

Big Things Often Have Small Beginnings

Mayer is a City in Carver County, along the South Fork of the Crow River. A post office was first established in Helvetia in 1875, and the name was changed to Mayer in 1888. The name Mayer was given it by railroad officials.

The City of Mayer is the Home of the Mayer Blazers. Ball playing in Mayer has a history that goes back nearly 100 years, and has always been strongly supported by the community. Many families have moved to Mayer because of its small town character, affordability of living, excellent schools and a short commute to Minneapolis and surrounding suburbs. The City of Mayer offers many locations for future business opportunities.
