The Board discussed the grand opening event of the splash pad. The group thought it went well and had good attendance. The food vendors reported they had a good day of sales.

City Administrator Johnson reviewed the updated signage designs for the disc golf course as well as items related to sponsorship. Kusske and Johnson will coordinate to solicit sponsorships.

The Board discussed participation in the Mayer Rising Community Festival. The plan for the tent this year is to have a portable basket for disc golf and showcase the new course. The Board wanted to invite Andy and Jason to participate as disc golf experts to demonstrate to visitors.

The Christmas Tree Lighting event was talked about for planning purposes. Many of the previous years' arrangements would be carried forward again in 2025. The Board requested the Watertown-Mayer chamber choir provide more of an ambient caroling rather than a showcased variety. Johnson discussed potentially decorating the splash pad and using the space as it will be winterized. The Board deferred selecting a date until the Fire Department selects their Santa photo day.

The discussion on the Christmas Decorating Contest was tabled.

City Administrator Johnson presented information on a potential project to expand the parking lot at City Hall.

A motion was made by Jackson and seconded by Kusske to adjourn the meeting. All voted in favor. None voted against. The motion was carried.
